One Suspect Arrested Following Burglary Investigation; A Second is Outstanding

Henrietta, NY (July 26, 2023) On June 11, 2023, Monroe County Sheriff's deputies responded to a business on Methodist Hill Drive in the Town of Henrietta, for a burglary report, in which suspects stole more than $100,000 worth of drones and accessories. MCSO Economic Crimes Unit investigators developed the identity of two men as suspects.

On July 25, 2023, ECU investigators, with the assistance of the MCSO Tactical Unit, CIS investigators, U.S. Marshals Task Force, and Homeland Security Investigations, executed search warrants on two locations. They arrested one suspect and recovered several stolen drones and accessories. Investigators are attempting to locate a second suspect.

Deputies charged Christopher M. Dejonge, 47, of East Rochester with:

- Grand Larceny in the Second Degree (Class C-Felony)
- Grand Larceny in the Third Degree (Class D-Felony)

Mr. Dejonge was arraigned in Henrietta Town Court and Released on his own Recognizance, as the crimes he is charged with do not qualify for bail.

Darius D. Smith, 43, of Henrietta is wanted for:

- Grand Larceny in the Second Degree (Class C-Felony)
- Grand Larceny in the Third Degree (Class D-Felony)

Anyone with information on Smith's whereabouts is asked to call 911 or email mcsotips@monroecounty.gov

The Monroe County Sheriff's Office thanks the U.S. Marshals Task Force and the Homeland Security Investigations special agents for their assistance in this case. Great work by the Economics Crime Unit and the deputies involved.
